

Character-Building Questions

1. Did your life reflect verbal integrity?
2. Did you express a forgiving attitude toward others?
3. Are there offenses you still hold onto that you need to confess?
4. Do you need to confess any sin?
5. What is the condition of your soul?
6. Did you practice undisciplined or addictive behavior?
7. Have you spent adequate time in Bible study and prayer?
8. Have you given priority time to your family?
9. How have you fulfilled the mandates of your calling?
10. Have any of your financial dealings lacked integrity?
11. Are you further out of or into debt from spending habits last week?
12. Have you been withholding anything from the Lord, including a portion of your income that should be given to His work and His kingdom?
13. What is the condition of your soul right now? Last week?
14. How much ave. time per day did you spend in study and prayer? Is that more or less than necessary to live the way God calls you to live? What do you need to change?
15. How have you sensed any influence or work of the Holy Spirit since our last meeting and what was the outcome?
16. What fruit of the Spirit would you like to see increase in your life? Why did you choose that? What disciplines might be useful to help in the increase?
17. How did God provide an opportunity for you to share your faith with someone? How did you respond?
18. Have you been with an adult or underage person anywhere or interacted with them at any time this past week that might be seen as morally compromising?
19. Have you exposed yourself to inappropriate websites or spent time on the internet interacting with anyone in ways that can be seen as compromising?
20. Did you invest the proper quality/quantity of time in your most important relationships?
21. In what ways have you thought about your outward appearance and/or physical self that either puts you in a state of shame or in ways that make you prideful?
22. Have you read publications or books lately that are not edifying to you or to God?
23. Have you gossiped about anyone this past week?
24. Is there anything that has dampened your zeal for Christ? What are you going to do about it?
25. In what ways did God make his presence known to you since our last meeting?
26. What temptations did you face since our last meeting and how did you respond?
27. What have you held back from God that you need to surrender?
28. In what ways are possessions becoming too important to you?
29. Are you further along or behind in your spiritual journey this week?
30. Have you just lied to me?

